Seventh-Day Adventist Church

"Meet the Conditions" — was the title of Pastor William Carpenter's sermon last Sabbath, Sept. 29. We have a message as Christians for the world of sanctification and purification, he said — and we must live the sanctified life as indicated in the Key texts — Thess. 5:23,24, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly and I pray God your whole spirit and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ". Faithful is he that has called you, who also will do it". We must walk as Christ walked. We should follow Christ in our thinking so our minds will be in tune with Jesus. We will automatically do the will of God through Christ. We must experience of new birth in order to become new creatures in Christ, St. John 3:3 The life within is the secret. Rom. 5:10.

Pastor Carpenter adds — The mind governs the body, how important it is to heed Paul's admonition in Phill. 2:5 "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ, Jesus. If we are to meet the conditions —the plan God has laid down for us, we are to turn aside from earth's sorrows and cares — and commune daily with Jesus, Mark 6:31, 8:34, and 4:19.

Liberty Baptist Church

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board will appoint more than 20 new missionaries at the opening session of its annual fall meeting in October. Members of churches throughout Virginia and adjoining states are invited to attend the service, which will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 9, in the sanctuary of Richmond's First Baptist Church, located at the Boulevard and Monument Ave.

The Missionary candidates will give brief testimonies of Christian experience and, after acceptance by the Board, be commissioned for service overseas. One of the most thrilling experiences in connection with the Foreign Mission Board is to hear the testimonies of appointees," says Dr. Baker J. Cauthen, Executive Secretary. "The coming of each missionary to appointment is an experience of spiritual inquiry and fulfillment. Attending before the Board each person indicates that he is turning his face toward a land of need in answer to the mandate of the Master."

The Tuesday evening session will also include Dr. Cauthen's report to the Board. The annual meeting will continue through Wednesday, October 10, in the chapel at Board Headquarters, 3806 Monument Ave.

FALL REVIVAL SERVICES continue each evening, beginning at 7:30 O'clock, with special selections by the Revival Chorus Choir, followed by spirited congregational singing.

The Evangelist, Rev. George W. Ports, former pastor of Park-view Methodist Church, Lynchburg, is bringing stirring gospel messages. For the remaining sermon subject, Mr. Ports has announced the following: Thursday, "Repentance and Conversion": Friday, "The Marvelous Grace of God" — Sunday morning — "The Meaning of the Cross" and for the final services of the revival — Sunday evening: "The Lost Sheep".

Mr. Ports is exceptionally qualified as an evangelist, having been Virginia Annual Conference Evangelist in full-time work for several years, and now upon retirement from the active pastorial ministry, he and his wife are giving their full time to the holding of revivals through out Virginia and in North Carolina. His messages are filled with personal illustrations of his effective ministry through the forty years of his active pastoral work in Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina.

The Revival Chorus Choir composed of the combined choirs are rendering marvelous service for the meeting, their special selections are most inspiring. Some of the special numbers will be: "He is Mine" with men's base and tenor section, "Lead Me Gently Home" with emphasis upon parts - singing; and "Calling the Prodigal" with a stirring chorus and refrain section.

The monthly meeting of the official board, Charles T. Moses, Sr., chairman will meet in the Wesley Fellowship Assembly Room on Monday evening, 7:30 o'clock, in postponed meeting from regular Wednesday night of the first week in the month.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet in regular monthly meeting and the six circles in connection with the society meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 10, in the assembly room of the adult division.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship meets each Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, with the Chapel Choir rehearsal immediately preceding the Fellowship Meeting. All young people of the church and visitors are urged to be present each Sunday evening.

Sunday, October 14, is being designated Christian Higher Education Sunday at Memorial with special emphasis upon the Crusade for Christian Higher Education throughout Virginia to undergird the work of the Wesley Foundations on the State College Campus, the work of Methodist Colleges and academies of the state, and Blackstone assembly.

Church Windows Dedicated Sun.

New stained glass windows, pews, and carpeting were dedicated in special services at the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church Sunday, Sept. 30, at 11 a.m.

The congregation gave two windows to honor former pastors. The "City Set on a Hill" window was given in memory of Rev. Robert Eugene Redding, pastor from 1942-43. The "Lighted Lantern" window was presented in honor of Dr. W. Twyman Williams, Jr. pastor 1948-61, who also preached the morning sermon.

Other dedications were made as follows: "Lilies" Window, in memory of Samuel Guthrie Anderson, by his relatives. "Cross and Crown" Window, in memory of Deacon C. Kendall Hunter, Sr., by Mrs. Hunter and sons. "Descending Dove" Window, in memory of Harold Y. Spencer, druggist, given by Mrs. Spencer and daughter. "Golden Harp" Window, in memory of Mrs. Nathalie E. Schwab, given by her daughters, Mrs. Mildred S. McKenzie, Mrs. Irene B. Berryman and Mrs. Josephine S. Strong.

The front Transom Window was given by Mrs. Schweizer's Sunday School class of 1962. The "Cross, Bible, Olive Branch" Window was presented by Mrs. Nellie T. Schweizer, the "Burning Lamp" Window, by Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis McDearmon, and the "Anchor, Cross" Window, by Mr. and Mrs. T. Randolph Gilbert.

The "Star of Bethlehem" Window was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bragg, and a pew was given by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Harvey.

Appomattox County Library

NEW BOOKS — Appomattox Library

A SHADE OF DIFFERENCE by Allen Drury — A new Washington novel with many of the same characters as ADVISE AND CONSENT, dealing with a crisis arising from an African statesman's demand that the U.S. remove all of our problems.

UHURU by Robert Ruark — A true story - the characters may be technically fictional, but there is nothing in UHURU that has not happened and is not happening in Kenya, Africa. Woven into Brian Dermott's pursuit of big game is his love affair with an American girl. The UHURU means "freedom".

WHERE THE HEART is by Elizabeth Borton de Trevino. Elizabeth Trevino, is a native of California, but has adopted Mexico as her home — she writes with candor as well as affection of her adopted country, its traditions, manners, mores, and problems — In describing the day-by-day life of the Mexican middle class, she has many original comments to make and renders a service to prospective visitors to Mexico. Visit with her to a concert, a bull - fight, a woman's club, to the hairdresser, to the market, and to many family celebrations, including the endearing ceremony called the Blessing of the House — Meet her mother-in-law, Manucita.

IN THE CLEARING by Robert Frost — The first collection of new poems in fifteen years of Robert Frost, a four-time Pulitzer - prize winner. Several years ago at the age of 83 years, Frost hesitated to call himself a poet, insisting "it's for the world to say whether you're a poet or not." Contained in this book is "The Gift Outright" which Robert Frost recited on January 20, 1961 at the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy.

DEARLY BELOVED by Anne Morrow Lindbergh — Mrs. Lindbergh uses the wedding service as a framework for her reflections and intuitions about the most crucial of human relationships. Throughout the ceremony, the onlookers survey not just this couple, but their own lives and hopes and fears. Easy reading.

— 1125 books were circulated from the Appomattox County Library for the month of September. 24 magazines were checked out. The Library is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. We welcome you to come and browse.

Missionary Speaks

Mrs. J. Wash Watts, of New Orleans, Louisiana, will be the speaker at Liberty Baptist Church, October 11, 7:30 p.m., when Group IV of Women's Missionary Union holds its fall meeting. Mrs. Hunter Jones, of Concord, is group leader.

Mrs. Watts and her husband served six years as missionaries of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board in Palestine. She has taught missions and English at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary where Dr. Watts has been professor of Old Testament for thirty years. The past year they spent in the Middle East, teaching in the Baptist Seminary and High School in Beirut, Lebanon.
